Half The Frame, Double The Fun - The New Classic

New KODAK Film Camera is launching soon...

Here's a new idea for those getting into photography for the first time, or looking to reduce film costs. The new classic, KODAK EKTAR H35 Half Frame Camera is ideal for photographers looking to reduce film usage and related costs.

It features a built-in flash and a small-and-light body, and is designed to be handy and easy-to-use; even film beginners can handle KODAK EKTAR H35 effortlessly. Furthermore, it comes in four colours, namely black, brown, sage and sand. How can it not be the perfect film camera for different and every social occasions? With KODAK EKTAR H35, you will always be ready to capture any treasurable moments - anywhere, any time.

Fun Of Shooting Half-Frame

KODAK EKTAR H35 is your great tool to tell a story through two consecutive frames. So how to compose the picture? The possibilities are infinite and only depend on your imagination. Try and explore, be creative!

Fun Composition

There are various ways to pair the frames. For instance, you can take a close up and a wide shot of the same environment, or film the same subject at two different times, to name but a few.

Portrait Photos

Hold your camera in a normal horizontal orientation to get portraits instead of landscape photos.

Features

Film-saving

You can have twice as many images per roll. For example, a film roll with 36 exposures can yield around 72 half-frame photos - doubled!

Lightweight and Easy-to-use

The pocket-size camera is light and tiny, and hence convenient for you to bring along daily. Since its instructions are simple, it is suitable for all analog hobbyists.

Built-in Flash

Turning on the flash by adjusting the silver ring around the lens so that you can use KODAK EKTAR H35 during days and nights, outdoor and indoor.

Four colours

Black, brown, sage and sand. Neat and natural.

Four Colours

Contrasting the bright colourful series we have already had, the colours chosen this time are low-key and unadorned, making KODAK EKTAR H35 a stylish item to record your everyday life.

Black

Matching the black leather against the smooth silver plate, this design is simply classic and a choice for everyone.

Sand

The earthy touch of light yellow smooths out the clean-cut outline of the camera - calming and just a pleasure to look at.

Sage

Being neither too bright nor too dark, this greyish green is subtle but playful, luring you to nature for outdoor snaps!

Brown

A hint of antique feeling can be brought out by simply sitting it on your desk; the brown film camera is itself a lifestyle statement.
